Home Nations

This was awarded to Northern Ireland at the event, however the result is in dispute at the moment with all likelihood that the result will be re-awarded to England

Organisers Comments

After some challenging events and weather conditions, the event was delivered and most everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. My personal thanks to the workparty who went so far above and beyond it was unreal. My personal thanks also go to the catering crew who worked tirelessly for weeks before the event to ensure that everyone was fed and watered. It is easy to forget that it is as tiring for the catering crews as for the work party and they often appear as the unsung heroes. Thanks everyone
